Directory of Gender-Based Violence (GBV) Responders and Service Providers in Nigeria

invictus
AFRICA

About The Orange Pages

The Orange Pages: Directory of Gender-Based Violence Responders and Service Providers in Nigeria was informed by the incessant increase in incidents of Gender-Based Violence (GBV) in Nigeria, which has been exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic. It complements past and ongoing efforts to curb SGBV and ensure support for survivors. This alarming and worrisome increase in gender-based violence necessitates the need for at-risk populations – women, girls, children, and persons living with disabilities – to have access to verified and accurate contacts of government institutions, Sexual Assault Referral Centres (SARCs), civil society organizations, and individuals who can be reached by genderbased violence survivors across Nigeria for assistance, advice, and referrals. The colour orange is adopted by the United Nations to symbolize “a brighter future, free of violence,” serving as a means of demonstrating solidarity in eliminating all forms of violence.
